SAYS NO ONE WAS WITH HIM

J. B. Diehl. Robbed of $10,000 Worth of Diamonds, Says He Was Drugged.

WOMAN IN THE CASE MISSING

Gladys Whitney, Who Is Under Suspicion, Last Seen Entering Taxicab at Metropold Hotel.

"Any statement of any newspaper purporting to give an interview from me in connection with the diamond robbery is false. Several newspaper men have been to see me, but they regived no statement from me other than that I had been robbed of the diamonds Really all that I could say is that engaged a room at the Metropole hotel went to bed there shortly after midnight Thursday night, and with the wallet containing the diamonds concealed in the inside pocket of my vest, which I placed under my pillow, I felt secure. When I awoke I instinctively reached for the wallet and found the diamonds missing. Without waiting to dress I called the hotel people, the police department and the Pinkertons, "All I can say is that I was druggd some way in my room and robbed of the diamonds. There was no one in my room with me and that's all I can are about the affair. I was simply say about the affair. I was simply drugged and robbed."

This was the statement made to the Deseret Evening News this morning by J. B. Dichi, a traveling salesman for Charles Wathen & Co., of Denver, and who yesterday awakened in a room in the Metropole hotel to find that he had been relieved of somthing like $10,-000 worth of diamonds which he carried in a wallet, and as samples of the wares offered by the firm he represented.

Diehl was reticent this morning regarding his actions of the night he lost the diamonds. From the hotel clerks and others the story comes that clerks and others the story comes that Gladys Whitney is the woman sought by the police as the probable thief of the diamonds. The story told for publication by Diehl is that he had passed the night of Thursday with some male friends, and that he had retired to his room about 2 o'clock in the morning. He had taken a drink or two before but almost immediately upon entering his room he was overupon entering his room he was over-come with drowsiness and when he awoke in the morning it was with the after effects of some kind of drug.

The police are now endeavoring to locate the Whitney girl, who is believed to have had a hand in the affair. It is said that she went to the affair. It is said that she went to the room secured by Diehl at the Metropole hotel, and was in his company. During the early morning hours she left the hotel scantily clad, and took a waiting taxicab and was taken away from the hotel.

In the meantime the police are blindly looking for the possible thief of the diamonds. Pinkerton detectives are on the way to work on the case.

OLD TRANSIT IS SOLD.

Obsolete Instrument Goes Under the Hammer at Surveyor General's,

A surveyor's transit 25 years old sold at auction in the office of the surveyor general in this city this morning, F. J. Van Winkle being the purchaser, and the price paid being $19. The instrument is an almost obsolete pattern, weighing complete 28 pounds, and is considered too heavy for field work by the present-day surveyors, the lates pattern instruments weighing only 11 pounds. The old transit had lain around pounds. The old transit had lain around the office for years, until it had become an eyesore, and Surveyor General Huli asked permission from the government to auction it off. The permission was given and the sale was made this morning. There was some spirited bidding when the sale commenced, four surveyors taking a hand. The instrument was knocked down by Chief Clerk iPletcher, who acted as auctioneer, at the price given above. The old instrument bears many marks of wear, and according to traditions of the surveyor general's office, has seen much service according to traditions of the surveyor general's office, has seen much service in the the olden days. Many and many a mile of Utah lands has been brought under record with this transit, and from sundry indentations and fractures in the legs of the machine weird stories of encounters with Indians and coyotes have been conjured up. Mr Van Winkle says it will require some little work to get the transit into working order, yet he feels pleased at his acquisition, as, new, such a machine would cost new, such a machine would cost

'MORMON PEOPLE ARE LOYAL AND PATRIOTIC'

Col. C. G. Dobbs of New York Expresses His Sentiments on the Tabernacle Block.

Forty years ago, Col. C. G. Dobbs of New York, then a young man, came to Utah on a special trip to see Brigham Young. Today Col. Dobbs, accompanied by Mrs. Dobbs, is in the city on his way home from a trip to Alaska. At one time the colonel was a newspape; man, but is now a retired business man of the American metropolis. While making the founds of the tabernace, Friday, the colonel was mee by Mrs. Zina Card, a daughter of the late President Brigham roung, and she re-membered as a little girl of 5 years old having met the colonel at her rather's where he was entertained one evening 40 years ago. Col. Dobbs was acquainted with the late D. H. Peery of Ogden, and was pleased to find that Joseph S. Peery, the guide of the party of about 150 visiting the tabernacle grounds, was a son of his old acquaintance. Mr. a son of his old acquantance. Mr. Peery asked Col. Dobbs to talk to the party. "I have found the Mormon people are a loyal, patriotic people." Insaid. "One of their beautiful articles of faith is that they believe in upholding and obeying the laws of the land. Since the United States law declared that a clurality of wives was wrong. that a plurality of wives was wrong, they issued a Manifesto against the continuance of that institution, and have lived up to it. Brigham Young was a great man."

Saturday morning Col. Dobbs said to

"I consider the Mormon people the highest type of patriotism to be found anywhere today in America. The act which placed them in the lead was not which placed them in the lead was not when they sent men out to protect the United States mails in the late Civil war; but when they sent the Mormon battalion to fight the Mexicans; not when they sent their boys to the Philippines to die in the cause of our country, but the crucial test of all was when the United States said there should be no more polygamy in America, and the people assembled in-solemn worship and renounced what they considered one of their strongest religious beliefs, and to thereafter do their utmost to keep within the law. That to me," said Col. Dobbs emphatically, "was one said Col. Dobbs emphatically, "was one of the finest examples of patriotism ever

BLIND OBEDIENCE TO BELLE LONDON

DEPARTMENT DISORGANIZED

Older Members of Police Force Fearful of the Official Axe Which Drops Wheat Queen Directs.

Since Sam H. Barlow stepped into the shoes of the chief of the police de-partment, under the "American" party administration, on three out of many occasions, the policy of the administra-tion has been thrown out into brilliant relief. Sworn to enforce the laws and ordinances of the city, the attention of the police department was called police department was called sugh the action of the city council on uary 21, 1909, to the existence of le London's "stockade," where wom-January 21, 1909, to the existence of Belle London's "stockade," where wom-en were herded within the narrow walls en were herded within the narrow walls for immoral purposes. Chief of Police Bariow could not find the "stockade" then, and was as blind March 7, 1910, when the council, by a resolution demanded that the city at-torney and the chief of police take ac-tion to close the "stockade." The city attorney in the following weeks issued 43 warrants for the arrest of inmates 453 warrants for the arrest of inmates 453 warrants for the arrest of inmates of the "stockade," and hauled Belle London into court, but the police could not secure a jury that would convict Belle London, and after the 453 warrants had been returned without service, Sergt. B. M. Beckstead, who had failed to serve the warrants, was promoted to the position of chief of detectives.

TROUBLES THE LEADERS. 'The work of the police department under the "American" party adminisunder the "American" party adminis tration is proving a worry, and troublesome one, to the party leaders With the election coming on the leaders are wondering how they can "point with pride" to the "American" party administration as reflected in the bungle of the police.

The "American" party took over the police department with the appoint-police department with the appointment of "Honest George" Sheets Jan. 1, 1906. An Aug. 5 of the next year Sheets, under the fire of the accusation of the notorious McWhirter deal, was forced to abandon his position, and the "American" party mayor, Ezra Thompson, went with him in sympathy. Mayor Bransford stepped into office as the result of the expose of the police methods, and during his regime has tried three men, only the last, Sam H. Barlow, having proved true to the interests of Belle London. Roderick McKenzie was appointed to fill the place of Chief of Police Sheets, taking his place Aug. 18, 1907, but being forced to retire in less than two months when it was discovered that he was not even a cittzen of the country.

Tom D. Pitt was inveigled into the job on Oct. 21, 1907, but after he had stated emphatically that he would have no part in the administration's scheme of playing into the hands of Belle London, his resignation was demanded and he left the service Dec. 7, 1308. Sam H. Barlow, who before was a salesman of coffees and spices, had less scruples, and since Dec. 21, 1908, has carried out the whims and wishes of Belle London.

THIEVES INVITED TO STAY. The regime of the "American" party in police circles and the police protection of the citizens since 1906 has been one rather of the protection of petty crooks and criminals and of the underworld. The stool-pigeon system was inaugurated early in the regime. Petty theves were encouraged to make their headquarters here, and were allowed to prey upon the public as long as they were willing to spy and squeal upon their more clever brethren who thought they could turn the trick without the their more clever brethren who thought they could turn the trick without the aid of the police. That the system is still in vogue was demonstrated in the rapidity of the capture of Thorne and Hayes, charged with the murder of Fassell, when the police, headed by the then chief of detectives, George Sheets, reached Thorne's room about the time he did after he had committed the murder. The police story of how "the gang" had been under suspicion is still fresh in the memory.

That the police department has proved a millstone, however, is the worry of the party manngers and leaders, and their quandary has been deep-

ers, and their quandary has been deep-ened by the events of the past month

When on March 7 of this year the city council instructed the city at-torney and the chief of police to sec to the enforcement of the law as it applied to Belle London's walled city, devoted to immoral purposes in defi-ance of the city ordinances, the city devoted to immoral purposes in defi-ance of the city ordinances, the city attorney, H. J. Dininny, immediately began the issuance of warrants against the inmates. Each day for two weeks and more, warrants in batches of 15 and 20 were given into the hands of the police for service. The service of the warrants was entrusted to Sergt. Beckstead, now chief of detectives, but Beckstead, now chief of detectives, but in spite of his vigilance between the hours of 10 and 11 o'clock at night, he could not find the place open. Now he is chief of detectives.

BELLE LONDON'S RULE. BELLE LONDON'S RULE.

It is plain spoken in several quarters, in touch with the police department, that the recent changes, including the resignations of Chief of Detectives George A. Sheets, Detectives Harry J. Curran and P. C. Howell, were the outcome of Belle London's domination of the police department and the furtherance of promises made to her.

romises made to her.
It is said that the main and most mportant business of the department for the past year has been the carry-ing out of the promises of protection given to Belle London.

given to Belle London.

Seeing jealously the opposition of the "uptown" houses, Belle London made her demand upon the chief of police. Plain clothes men were detailed by the chief of police, as for instance last February when Detectives Schuitze, Wheling and Howell, were taken from the work of ferreting out criminals and ordered on the special detail of informing the colored women of the underworld on Franklin avenue that if they wanted to the underworld on Franklin avenue that if they wanted to ply their trade they must go within the stockade. Other detectives were assigned to similar duty by the chief of police and Mr. Sheets, as chief of detectives, rebelled—and was forced to resign. The two detectives followed him, presumably for the same cause. But the "American" party leaders find themselves in a strange box. The promises to Belle London that she would be the absolute ruler of the underworld have not been fulfilled—the "uptown" houses are still running openly and in defiance of the police threats; the chief of police fids himself unable to cope with them, and hus threats; the chief of police fids himself unable to cope with them, and his lost several of his most efficient of-ficers; his appointees to vacancies, al-though approved by Belle London, have not received the approval of the police and prison committee of the city coun-cil, who fear the protest brought against them, and the rank and file of because of the constant fear of when the axe will fall. The leaders are busy just now trying to figure out where to sacrifice the pawn of the police on the chessboard of politics.

IDAHO STATE BANK CLOSES ITS DOORS

Hailey Concern Now in Hands of Bank Examiner-Liabilities $500,000; Assets Small,

The Idaho State bank of Hailey has losed its doors, and is now in the hands of State Bank Examiner G. W. Cruse of Boise. It is claimed the collateral held by the bank is worthless, so that the assets amount to little or nothing. The total of liabilities amount to half a million. The failure is to half a million. The failure is ascribed to ill advised loans and investments, the latter consisting largely of loans to Vice President Les Cramer, the principal stockholder.

The shaky condition of the bank had been kept from the public, and J. B. Cosgriff of this city, a stockholder in the Hailey National bank, went up there this week, to try and help straighten things out. The distressed institution was kept open for a few days, with the help of the Hailey National, but the "sick man" was too far gone for recuperation, and on Wednesday last, the examiner was called in. The doors were closed Thursday. The Camas Prairie bank of Soldier is owned by the Hailey State, and at the

The doors were closed Thursday. The Camas Prairie bank of Soldier is owned by the Hailey State, and at the request of the state bank examiner, J. B. Cosgriff purchased the stock of that bank, and the reserve of $43,000 was transferred from the Idaho State to the Hailey National.

The Idaho State bank deposits were $112,000 in open accounts; $41,000 in savings accounts, and $155,000 in time accounts. An additional, liability of about $200,000 was occasioned by the hypothecation of the securities. The total assets consisted of $76 in the vaults, and a large amount of collateral, the value of which is believed to be small. The last annual statement of the bank gives its capital stock as $75,000, surplus $13,000, deposits $434,000, and loans $313,000. Since that statement the deposits have shrunk about $100,000. J. J. Plummer was the president; Leo Cramer, vice president and manager; F. M. Coleman, cashier, and W. D. Cutts, assistant cashier.

FINAL RECORDS TAKEN.

Tabernacle Choir, Organ and Violin Records Sent East for Stereotyping.

The final Tabernacle records were completed Friday afternoon, when Willard Welhe played a violin solo, a "Cradle Song," by Sauret, the artist playing inside the organ case, and standing by the mouth of the trumpet connected with the recording machine placed just outside the case. Prof. McClellan was the accompanist. Prof. J. J. Daynes then played the Batiste "Communion in G," as the final number in the organ list of records. There would have been more records taken, but 20 wax blanks went astray in expressage, and have never been located. Consequently, as soon as the expert used up the blanks at hand there was nothing left but to return home. As far as can be ascertained, the records are good; but until the stereotyping is dobe, it will not be safe to predict too much. Proofs will be ready in three weeks, and sent out here for trial. JAILOR'S SYSTEM OF PETTY GRAFT

Prisoners at City Jail Have to "Come Through" to Send Word to the present-day police affairs. One Sunday, exactly July 24, three young fellows, all residents of Salt Lake and living with their parents, were arrested in Liberty park towards o'clock in the evening. They were booked at the police station at 6:05 o'clock. The fact that all three, upon their hearing Tuesday in the police court, were released is simply an incident to the real story of the police graft.

One of the boys arrested, Julius Jones, at the time of his being booked had $7 upon his person. At the time of his being booked his bail was fixed at $25 by the desk sergeant. He asked permission to call up a friend and was told he could do that through the jailor. Between 6 and 7 o'clock he, within his cell, called the day jailor three different times and asked that the friend be communicated with. The day jailor was too busy, and when the night jailor came on at 7 o'clock, the youth, pacing the jail corridor, called him six different times, asking that the friend be communicated with. It was about half-past 10 o'clock when one of the inmates of the jail, taking pity on the "green" of the jail, taking pity on the "green" young fellow, "tipped" him off by ask-ing, "Have you got any money out there in front?" (meaning the desk sergeant's office).
When told "Yes, I have $7 there," the other prisoner laughed, saying, "Work, you can't get any word outside the jail until you come through with the lad understood and the next time the jailor was called, he asked the jailor how much it would cost to telephone his friend. The jailor thought that it would require at least 50 cents that it would require at least 50 cents for a messenger, and an order was given to the front office for the 50 cents. The jailor cashed the order and then stepped across the hall to the office of the chief of police, and, act-ing the part of the messenger, who had received the 50 cents, called up friend.

Although Chief of Police Barlow and his lieutenants were later made ac-quainted with the facts the petty graft of the city jail was not suppressed, nor was the jailor censured.

George A. Taylor Falls Victim of Heart Failure While Seeking Work.

George A. Taylor, who has been in ill realth and poor circumstances as a consequence for some time, dropped dead of heart failure at Seventh East and Fourth South streets at 2 o'clock this afternoon, while in quest of a place of employment. Mr. Taylor and his family have been living in a humble home in South Park for several weeks, home in South Park for several weeks, and owing to the condition of the husband, Mrs. Taylor has been compelled to work for their support. Mr. Taylor was unable to do hard work and was seeking some light occupation which might aid them in their destitute circumstances. He fell in the street almost opposite the home of Dr. Chandler and the physician, who was at home at the time, hurried across the street of give him attention. The man was to give him attention. The man was dead before Dr. Chandler reached his side. He called the police and the body was ordered sent to O'Donnell's mortuary. NO BAND CONCERT TUESDAY.

Owing to the inability of Manager dallo of Ferullo's band to recall two Colorado engagements, the proposition to repeat the Seattle program of the tahernacle choir next Tuesday evening n the tabernacle has had to poned until the return west of the band in November, when it goes to California for the season. Manager Gallo re-ceived letters Friday afternoon from Colorado stating that the "paper" been posted, and the concerts adver-tised at Greely and Boulder, as plannetised at Greery and Boulder, as planned some time ago, and guarantees made, so there could be no cancellation or postponement. However, the manager said Friday evening that he would be very glad to have the band stop over. very glad to have the band stop over, as stated, on the return west for the proposed concert with tabernacle choir and organ. Prof. Stephens' announcement Thursday evening of the possibility of the repetition of the Seattle program has created something of a furore, so that it is confidently believed the tabernacle will hold one of the present concert audiences in its history argest concert audiences in its history at the November concert.

Ten thousand. and those dependent upon them-50,000 souls in all-were on the point of eviction, and hundreds had already been forced on to the streets. The industriar loss to employers and employes has run high into the millions. In loss of wages alone the total has been estimated at more than $10,000,000, while the loss to manufacturers, jobbers and retailers the country over has been computed at 10 times that amount.

In spite of the stupendous readjust-ment involved, the strike has been in the main notable for peacefulness. There were numerous cases of petty disorder, and a petition of the manufacturers brought forth from Justice Goff of the state supreme court an in-junction in which he ruled that any strike called to demand the closed shop was in restraint of trade.

Julius Henry Cohen, counsel for the Manufacturers' association, describes the agreemnt signed by him and representatives of the strikers in this sen-No principle has been sacrificed by

In the articles of agreement the idea s thus described:

"Each member of the manufacturers is to maintain union shops, union shops being understood to refer to a shop where union standards as to working where union standards as to working conditions, hours of labor and rates of wages prevail, and where when hiring help, union men are preferred; it being recognized that since there are differences of degrees of skill, employers shall have the freedom and selection as be-tween one union man and another and shall not be confined to any list nor shall not be commed to any list nor bound to follow any prescribed order."

Other articles provided for these more important points:
First—Electric power free.
Second—No work at homes.
Third—Discipline of any manufac-turer proved guilty of discrimination mong his employes.
Fourth-Six days' work a week and cash weekly payday. Fifth-All sub-contracting within Sixth-Nine hours' work a day, days a week and five hours the sixth Seventh-The price of piece work to be agreed upon by a committee of employes and their employers.

Eighth—Double pay for overtime.

Mr. Cohen concludes his statement with the following declaration, remarkde for one in his position: "Trade unions are not only nece sary but must be guided and strengthened. I have not been fighting your unions; I have been fighting for what I believed were the rights, guaranteed by the laws of the country to my clients.

The settlement of the strike avert a crisis on the crowded west side. With thousands out of work and unable to pay rent, the courts were literally swamped with eviction proceedings. IDAHO'S PRIMARY ELECTION RETURNS

Boise, Ida., Sept. 2.—Additional re-turns of Idaho's primary election make no changes in the result as announced Wednesday night. Gov. Brady, Republican, is renominated by a handsome majority over all, estimated at 2,000. This is big, considering the light vote and the number of candidates. Congressman Hainer, standpatter, was de-feated decisively by former Congress man French, insurgent. French's jority may reach 5,000. James H. Haw-ley, anti-state-wide prohibitionist, was nominated for governor on the Democratic ticket, and A. M. Bowen for

On account of the supreme court having held that the second choice vote was compulsory, and, unless indicated, the first choice would not be counted, thousands of voters wrote in names indiscriminately for second choice in order to protect their first choice. This greatly delayed and terribly complicated the count.

RETURN FROM INSPECTION.

E. C. Manson, general superintendent, and W. S. Anderson, car service agent of the Oregon Short Line, have returned from a four-days' inspection trip over the line, in which the car situation was gone over. On Wednesday these gentlemen accompanied the fast mail train on a trip from Green River, Wyo, to Huntington, Or., when the distance covered, 571 miles, was made in 13 hours, with one hour dead time. The part running time, on the trip was 12 net running time on the trip was 12 or an average of nearly 48 miles
